

KLOVE radio is my best source of community information and if displaced by LPFM this would severely restrict the flow of information I need about community events I am interested in. Not only does KLOVE inform me about community issues, it also keeps me abreast of state and national issues I am interested in.